Life's Natural Rhythm

Slowing down and listening to your own natural rhythm can quickly connect you to the Universe.

Nature's natural rhythms orchestrate when day turns to night, when flowers must bloom, and provides the cue for when it is time for red and brown leaves to fall from trees. As human beings, our own inner rhythm is attuned to this universal sense of timing. Guided by the rising and setting of the sun, changes in temperature, and our own internal rhythm, we know when it is time to sleep, eat, or be active. While our minds and spirits are free to focus on other pursuits, our breath and our heartbeat are always there to remind us of life's pulsing rhythm that moves within and around us.

Moving to this rhythm, we know when it is time to stop working and when to rest. Pushing our bodies to work beyond their natural rhythm diminishes our ability to renew and recharge. A feeling much like jet lag lets us know when we've overridden our own natural rhythm. When we feel the frantic calls of all we want to accomplish impelling us to move faster than is natural for us, we may want to breathe deeply instead and look at nature moving to its own organic timing: birds flying south, leaves shedding, or snow falling. A walk in nature can also let us re-attune is to her organic rhythm, while allowing us to move back in time with our own. When we move to our natural rhythm, we can achieve all we need to do with less effort.

We may even notice that our soul moves to its own internal, natural rhythm -- especially when it comes to our personal evolution. Comparing ourselves to others is unnecessary. Our best guide is to move to our own internal timing, while keeping time with the rhythm of nature.

PETITION TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS & DEATHS ON HIGHWAY 6

MEDIA RELEASE - January 19, 2022 #SaferHighway6

A SAFER 6 PETITION: <https://chnng.it/mdTQ9k9V>

The recent, yet avoidable, car accident and death of Thompson's MLA Danielle Adams, as she was driving to Winnipeg on Highway 6 and hit a semi-trailer head on, was a terrible tragedy and loss that never should have happened. Poor road conditions played a role that day.

It shocked everyone regardless of their political bent. Her death, as a young MLA, has now brought the issue to top of mind. A group of very concerned citizens in northern Manitoba have launched a petition to bring attention to the underlying condition of how dangerous Highway 6 is. A strong grass roots appeal to the provincial government is now demanding highway improvements for safety reasons over the next three years. The petition has already reached 2000 signatures in only four days.

Adam's accident highlighted the risk and danger Northerners face when traveling as Highway 6 services much of northern Manitoba and reaches Thompson as Hub of the North. This 750 km stretch of highway has suffered a long list of accidents from roll overs to more serious accidents resulting long term injuries, paralysis, and deaths. The petition identifies many incidents. The personal, social, health, and economic costs have become unacceptable.

For many years, people and groups have lobbied different governments for improvements to this highways to reduce the risk when driving. More so, since dozens of semi-trailers and double length trailers began to drive the route daily in summer and winter.

Billowing snow in winter behind semis creates blind conditions with every trailer passing. Individual and family drivers often endure highly stressful conditions when they travel for holidays, sport tournaments, medical appointments, and business trips to the south.

The lack of wide, safe shoulders, lack of passing lanes, lack of rest stops, slow snow clearing, slow accident response times, etc all contribute to these conditions and results. Northerners are now speaking up and taking a strong stance and petitioning for highway improvements before more lives are lost.

The Province spent some $100 million on highway and bridge improvements in 2021. It's now time to dedicate a significant amount of funding to the North over the next three years starting in 2022.

The petition's preamble highlights solutions that could reduce the accident and death factor by 50 to 80%!

The organizers are now reaching out to all communities and First Nations in northern Manitoba to increase the signatures and send a strong measure the Province. The petition was the idea of Bev Rolsky in Thompson and a working group of citizens, Brenda Redman, Volker Beckmann, Inez Vystrcil, and Lindsay Anderson, have become very involved and determined. We all know of friends who have been in these accidents and many have had their own share of close calls on Highway 6.

Our objective is to keep the petition non-political and focus on safety and reducing driving risk factors. We will be gathering forces with northern mayors, First Nation Chiefs, and Chambers of Commerce to keep the petition at a high public level to build a strong base of grass roots support. The #SaferHighway6 group will look forward to meeting with the Minister of Infrastructure in the near future. For more information or suggestions, contact us at ManitobaHighway6@gmail.com. We will try to respond as soon as we can.

I also know that there are people who stop and smile at tiny plants growing out of sidewalk cracks, people who laugh so loud they snort, people who compliment others randomly, people who take pictures of their friends because they love seeing their friends happy, people who ramble about things that they're passionate about, people who blush and stutter, people who are kind, people who are warm, people who love and love and love and love.
