"Loneliness does not come from having no people around, but from being unable to communicate the things that seem important to oneself, or from holding certain views which others find inadmissible." - Carl Jung

Things that make you go "hmmm"

- If the #2 pencil is the most popular, why is it still #2?
- If humans get a charley horse, what do horses get?
- If the product says "Do not use if seal is broken", how are you supposed to open it and use it?
- If Superman is so smart why does he wear his underpants over his trousers?
- If athletes get athlete's foot, do astronauts get mistletoe?
- If you try to fail, and succeed, which have you done?
- If time heals all wounds, how come bellybuttons don't fill in?
- If you ate pasta and antipasta, would you still be hungry?
- If an orange is orange, why isn't a lime called a green, and a lemon called a yellow?
- If Fred Flintstone knew that the large order of ribs would tip his car over, why did he order them at the end of every show?
- If you're born again, do you have two belly buttons?
- Why is a building called a building if it's already built?

Delicious Beef Pot Roast Recipe

A tender juicy, fall apart, slow cooked beef, served with celery, carrots and onions. Delicious and perfect for fall & family.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 tbsp. Extra Virgin Olive Oil
- 1 large Onion, chopped into quarters
- 5 large Carrots, cut into 1" pieces
- 5 stalk Celery, cut into 1" pieces
- Salt & Pepper
- 5½ lbs Chuck Roast (boneless)
- 1 tbsp. Garlic, minced
- 2 tsp. Rosemary, dried
- 2 Bay Leaves
- 2 cups Beef Broth

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 275 degrees Fahrenheit.
2. In a large Dutch Oven; add olive oil and place on medium heat on stove top; let warm for 30 seconds. Add onions and cook for 1 minute. Take onions out of the pan and add carrots and celery. Cook until lightly browned; about three minutes. Take the vegetables out of the pot.
3. Sprinkle salt and pepper to the beef and add to the pot and sear all of the sides until browned. About 1 minute per side.
4. Turn the heat off and remove the meat out of the pot and add the vegetables back to the pot. Place the Beef on top of the vegetables and rub the top with garlic. Add rosemary and bay leaves to the top of the roast.
5. Add 2 cups of beef broth and cover. Place in the oven and cook for 3-4 hours. The roast is ready when the meat falls apart.

"As you begin to realize that every different type of music, everybody's individual music, has its own rhythm, life, language and heritage, you realize how life changes, and you learn how to be more open and adaptive to what is around us." - Yo-Yo Ma

"I'm a big believer that life changes as much as you want it to." - Martin Freeman

Kindness - Kindness expands the light within us and reaches out to touch the light in others as well.

Kindness is an ideal that is easily accessible to all of us. We all know that a small kindness can make our journeys lighter and more enjoyable. Even bringing an instance of kindness to mind can put a smile on your face days or weeks later or perhaps even inspire you to share kindness with another.

Though it may seem simple to the point of insignificance, many cultures throughout the world and history have recognized kindness as a powerful virtue. It may be the simplest way to experience and share all the grandest ideals of humanity. We can make the choice to act from the best place within ourselves at any time, while simultaneously recognizing the highest potential in another with the smallest of acts, nourishing the seed of hope in each soul we encounter.

In a way, kindness acts as the oil that makes the engine of our world move more smoothly and with less friction. We can still get where we are going but the ride is more pleasant, and those around us can share in the ideal world that we help to create. We are all fortunate that kindness is limitless in its supply and available to everyone. When we act in ways that confirm our ideals, we make the ideal our reality. Then, instead of affirming the experience of struggle and competition, we can shift our experience to the reality of ease and pleasurable camaraderie with the fellow citizens of the world.

Whether giving way to someone in traffic or letting someone go ahead of us in line, donating money or sharing our homes in a crisis, we actively create a universe of kindness and giving with every choice we make. The smallest gesture can bring a smile to light the shadow of an unpleasant situation or remove tension from a difficult task, but its effects can echo and extend far beyond the moment.

We can be sure that we will receive kindness in return, but giving is its own reward. Kindness expands the light within us and reaches out to touch the light in others as well, giving us all a glimpse of the glow that has the power to enlighten our world.

"What we think determines what happens to us, so if we want to change our lives, we need to stretch our minds." ~ Wayne Dyer

Life's too short to wake up with regrets.
So love the people who treat you right, forgive the ones who don't and believe that everything happens for a reason.
If you get a chance, take it. If it changes your life, let it. Nobody said it'd be easy, they just promised it would be worth it.

-- Dr. Seuss
